

ROBO Business

ADVANCING BUSINESS WITH AUTOMATION & AI

RoboBusiness is approaching quickly and in an effort to make the move-in smooth and efficient, we ask companies in the following types of booths to submit a booth design along with a completed booth variance FORM (must include all dimensions) for approval:

- Your booth is open on 3 sides, or is 400 sq. ft. or larger
- Includes a hanging sign
- Includes a canopy, ceiling or tower
- Includes a meeting room OR is multi-level

Click HERE to see the RoboBusiness Floor plan

If your exhibit has any of the above and we have not received and approved your booth design, you may be required to make modifications to your display onsite if they fail to meet regulations.

Here are some reminders to keep on your planning calendar!

- Register your booth staff, click HERE to begin
- Submit your certificate of insurance to Jonathan
- BOOK your hotel rooms – the cutoff date is September 4th!
- Use our Marketing Tools in all of your event related communications

Exhibitor Warning

RoboBusiness reminds it's exhibitors that we have no affiliation with room brokers OR companies claiming to be able to provide a RoboBusiness attendee list.

RoboBusiness has negotiated competitive room rate on your behalf with the hotel property listed on our website ONLY and does not sell, distribute or in any other way give out a RoboBusiness attendee list. No individual company has been authorized on our behalf to solicit your housing business OR marketing dollars.

You should contact the hotel by the method outlined on our website to make your reservations. If you are contacted by an unauthorized housing or list provider, please contact Show Management immediately at roboservices@ehpub.com with as many details as possible.
